

20/2

Through strength and stretch muscling a limitless grit against the race of days, visions behind the focused eye:

chalk-smoked and rodeo-stoked glitter-skinned and graffiti-penned forest fur and the verdant return running and rowing, lifting and throwing shadowed stripe and brawny might netted trick and leathered kick wheeled stunt and vintage junk standing and posing, leaping and floating

Images pushing the velocity of light halted by shadow, a test of corporeal and creative will in a game where everyone wins.
